GED PRESS RELEASE

GED CLASS OFFERED AT WALKERTOWN ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

Walkertown -- Walkertown Elementary School will offer a free GED class beginning June 23rd.

Walkertown Elementary School has partnered with the Adult Literacy Program at Forsyth Technical Community College to offer a free GED class.

“Walkertown is a growing area, and we want to be able to provide programs and services for this community,” stated Dr. A. Neil Raymer, Principal at Walkertown. “We are glad to be the first to offer this important program to our community. We know that an educated workforce improves the quality of life for the entire community as well as for the individual.”

The class is scheduled for June 23 – August 7, Monday through Friday, 9:00am -12:00 Noon at Walkertown Elementary. All course materials, books, supplies and the instructor will be provided by FTCC. No childcare will be provided. This class is free and open to the general public.

To register or get additional information, please call (336) 595-1221.
